

Faith Formation Update

April 2010

Final Day Celebration for Grades 1 – 6 - Will begin at 5:00pm in the Church. Each class will have a presentation about something or even things that they studied this past year. This will be followed by presentation of Awards. So, when you come next week, and while you are waiting for the presentations, you can fill out your son or daughter's or children's Faith Formation Registration and Vacation Bible School Information Forms. No registration fee is necessary at that time (although if you do have it we will gladly take it). All registration fees need to be to the Faith Formation Office by June 30, 2010. After that a $10.00 late fee will be assessed.

Faith Formation Registration for Pre School thru 8th grade and Vacation Bible School - Register your child(children) for Faith Formation 2010 – 2011 on Tuesday, April 13th from 4:00pm – 6:00pm in the church. Registration will also be available after the Masses the weekend of April 17th & 18th.

First Eucharist : First Eucharist Parents remember that the final review class is this Friday evening, April 9th at 6:30pm Only one parent need to be at this session. The children will learn about, review and practice the proper reception of the Eucharist in both forms. They will also be able to taste an unblest host and unblest wine from the cup. This will give them an opportunity to get the scrunched up faces out of their systems.

Junior Bell Choir: I would really like to start a Junior Bell Choir but it has been very difficult for the kids to meet after Faith Formation on Tuesdays due to school activities or just normal everyday family happenings. Right now I have Marissa Tucker, Gabrielle Batz, Rebecca Hartman, and Jamie Anzalone as the present Junior Bell Choir, and to play well it would be necessary to have at least 6 children, preferably 8. (Quinn James has expressed an interest in joining.) If your child might be interested in finding out more about playing bells and they are in 3rd, 4th, 5th, or 6th grade, please give Kathy a call at 293-1180.

Please Pray: For our First Eucharist and Confirmation Candidates as they continue to prepare to receive these sacraments of initiation.
